

Rebecca Palumbo

email: rebecca@rebeccapalumbo.com

portfolio: www.rebeccapalumbo.com

Summary

Web Designer with certificates in web related technologies and a degree in Mechanical Engineering. I enjoy working with HTML, CSS, JavaScript and Adobe Illustrator. High attention to detail, organized, dependable, and flexible. Looking for an opportunity where I can use and expand upon my skills.

Technical Skills

HTML5	Design Process
CSS3 & Sass	Design Aesthetics
Adobe Illustrator & Photoshop	GitHub & using the terminal
JavaScript, jQuery & npm	Technical Writing
Responsive Web Design	Visual Studio Code
SVG creation & animation	Microsoft Office

Personal Strengths

Organized	Flexible
High attention to detail	Creative problem solver
Enjoy learning	Dependable
Humble	Responsive
Considerate	Natural information gatherer
Determined	Strategic thinker

Education

Certificates from Cascadia College in 2018 – 4.0 GPA

Pursued my interest in web design by taking web related classes.

Made a website responsive and created a logo for my internship.

Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering from San Jose State University – 3.7 GPA

Certificates

User Interface Developer
Web Foundations
JavaScript Programming
Responsive Web Design

Work History

Parent and Home Owner from 2000 to present

Improved time management and communication skills. Improved and maintained home.

Reliability Engineer at Kenworth Truck Company in 1999

Created an internal website for reliability. Made sure that critical areas of new designs passed testing criteria. Created FMEA guidelines for design engineers.

Associate Design Engineer at Kenworth Truck Company from 1997 to 1999

Improved existing designs for the air, wiper and HVAC systems. Communicated with the change control department, Kenworth plant, and suppliers to coordinate changes.

IBM Call Center Specialist Intern for Thinkpad devices in the summer of 1996

Helped business users resolve issues they had with their Thinkpads.